The Dengue Virus, although virtually unknown in the United States, is prevalent in Latin America and Asia. It is also known as the breakbone fever. Transmitted by mosquitoes, the Dengue Virus causes rashes, headaches, and muscle pain. The hemorrhagic form of the virus may often cause death in the patient.

Click below to begin learning about Dengue!
Group 17 is:

Katrina Calkins, Ryan Chirnonas, Jeff Deville,
Bosun Hau, Christian Kirman, Erin McLain,
Kristi Parker, Julie Takeuchi, Jessica Yingling

December 1, 1996