U.S. Government Links

- U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
 - U.S. EPA Acid Rain Program -- A program designed to significantly reduce emissions responsible for acid deposition. General information on acid rain and specific information on EPA programs to reduce and prevent it.
 - Program Overview
 - Laws, Regulations, and Agreements
 - Student Resources
 - Environmental Benefits of Acid Rain Control
 - Acid Deposition Standard Feasibility Study -- Executive summary.
 - Human Health Benefits From Sulfate Reductions Under Title IV -- Executive summary.
 - The SO₂ Allowance Trading Program -- Allows utilities to adopt the most cost-effective strategy to reduce SO₂ emissions as units; allowances are the currency with which compliance with the SO₂ emissions requirements is achieved.
 - Permits Factsheet -- Describes Acid Rain Program allowance permits via factsheet and frequently asked questions.
 - Status of State Title IV Programs \(12/15/95\)
 - Allowance Trading -- Various allowance trading links, including: Trading, Annual Reconciliation, ATS Data, Trends in the Allowance Market, Allowance Allocations, Allowance Tracking System (ATS), Auctions, Early Reduction Credits, and Small Diesel Refineries Program.

- Other Government Links
 - U.S. Department of Energy Clean Coal Technology Program -- Presents innovative pollution control options to curb the release of acid rain pollutants from power plants. Valuable information on public-private initiatives in this area.

State, Local, University and Regional Links

- National Acid Precipitation Assessment Program \(NAPAP\) Tracking and Analysis Framework -- Supports coordination and communication among scientific researchers and policy makers with regards to acid rain issues.
- The National Atmospheric Deposition Program/National Trends

Network -- A national network of precipitation monitoring sites that collects data on the chemistry of precipitation for monitoring geographical and temporal long-term trends.

- Acid Rain in the Northeastern United States -- Spring and summer estimates of nitrate and sulfate wet depositions in kilograms per hectare by state and county by year for the Northeastern and Middle Atlantic regions. Mann Library, Cornell University.

International Links

- Canada
 - Environment Canada Acid Rain Home Page -- Includes information on acid rain trends, databases, reporting software, and concentration and wet deposition maps.
- Other International Links
 - Mesoamerica Foundation -- Describes the effects of acid rain on the Maya Ruins in Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula and Central America.
 - RAINS \(Regional Air Pollution INformation and Simulation\) -- Applies the RAINS model in Asia to assess strategies to reduce acid deposition.
 - Acid Rain Conditions in the United Kingdom -- Friends of the Earth describes unprotected areas and priority power stations for further acid emission controls.

Other Links

- EcoNet's Acid Rain Resources -- Provides links and information on acid rain.
- Yahoo! Web directory -- Acid rain links.
- American Geophysical Union Venusian Vignett: Acid Rain on Venus. Describes acid rain on Venus as a learning tool to improve understanding of the Earth's atmosphere.

Publications

- U.S. EPA National Service Center for Environmental Publications -- Contains the largest repository of Agency publications with more than 5,500 available titles, including paper and electronic versions available for distribution.
- Common Threads: Research lessons from acid rain, ozone

depletion, and global warming -- M.E. Kowalok, 1993.
